

Martha Gable

Class of 1978

Program(s): Women's Artistic

Inducted as: Contributor

A lifelong contributor to the sport, Martha Gable is most known for her influence on the progression of interscholastic gymnastics for women. Gable was a renowned judge, advocate and mentor to women in the sport, influencing in an era when intense physical activity among women was unpopular. She judged in the 1962 World Championships, which was but a benchmark in her long career that dated back to the 1940s.