

Rules, Rules, Rules

What do they mean?

Code of Professional Responsibility

Canons & Rules:

Standards for professional behavior that promotes respect for the National Association of Women's Gymnastics Judges

Canons

Canons are Ethical Concepts

“Should Do” Statements

Rules

- Rules set forth the minimum level of conduct regarding ethical behavior
- Most of these are “Shall Not” statements

Problem Resolution Process and Disciplinary Action Guidelines

Step by step procedure for dealing with breaches of expected behavior to ensure a well ordered and justly administered system

Rule #1

A NAWGJ member:

- Will follow the rules in the Code of Professional Responsibility
- Is a law abiding person
- Is honest and unbiased
- Is mentally and physically fit to do the job

Rule #2

A NAWGJ member will Report, and keep Confidential any knowledge of a member violating Rule #1 by following the Problem Resolution Process and Disciplinary Action Guidelines

Rule #3

A member who has knowledge or evidence concerning another NAWGJ member, will share this with the specified NAWGJ Representative during an investigation

Rule #8

A judge will speak the truth about NAWGJ members or people involved in a NAWGJ meet/event.

A guide - Be kind