

Examples of Spending NAWGJ Funds

Updated April 2025

The National Association of Women's Gymnastics Judges is a 501(c)(3), defined by the IRS as a not-for-profit organization organized and operated exclusively for one or more exempt purposes. NAWGJ expenditures must be related to the NAWGJ mission, that is, to provide professional development for its members and to support and promote women's gymnastics in the United States. Please refer to the NAWGJ Bylaws Article XIII, Financial Policy. This document provides some examples of how funds may be spent to support NAWGJ's mission.

Membership Fees

- NAWGJ dues have priority for expenditures over affiliate dues
- Affiliates – USAG, AAU, High School, USAIGC, NGA etc. - NAWGJ funds may be used but only after NAWGJ dues and other NAWGJ related activities are paid such as educational/testing expenses and National Judges' Cup participation.
- Costs related to Safety Certification and Background Checks are allowable.

Educational Experiences

- Clinics/Workshops/Symposium Fees (Registrations/travel/per diem)
 - NAWGJ functions are the highest priority and then affiliate functions

Appreciation Gifts/Retirement/Sympathy

- Circumstances arise where gifts and donations using NAWGJ funds may be allowable; however, these donations must be appropriate for the occasion and should be limited to $100.00 or less. The SJD must receive written approval from the Regional Judging Director for any gift or donation exceeding $100.00.
- Do not use State or Regional funds for purposes not reflected in our Mission. For example, don't help an individual in need. Instead, pass the hat at an event; don't pass that money through your account. Don't help their cause with State or Regional funds.

Depreciable Items on Equipment Inventory
